WELCOME TO THE HUMPHREYS 289

WELCOME TO TORTUGA! Located in Humphreys County, Mississippi, this 289± acre property features a 4,295± square foot home with land that stretches all the way to and along the Yazoo River. Just outside of Belzoni, it is easy to access while still offering the space and privacy suited for a hunting property, weekend getaway, or full-time residence.

The home is accessed by gated entry and was originally built around 1970. It has been updated over the years, including the addition of a new roof. It offers four bedrooms, each with its own bathroom, along with an additional half bath. Inside you will find a remodeled kitchen, dining and breakfast areas, a large family room, a hunting room, and a wet bar that works well for hosting. There is also a spacious area above the carport that serves well as a bonus room or extra sleeping space. The home, overlooking a large yard with mature pecan trees and an 8± acre field, has a lot of character and would make a great lodge, permanent residence, or even a small event venue. Additional improvements include several storage buildings and a 50' by 60' workshop with three roll-up doors, giving you plenty of room for equipment, UTVs, and boats.

MORE ABOUT THE HUMPHREYS 289

Inside the levee, maintained by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, is where the recreational side of the property really stands out. The land offers just over one and a half miles of Yazoo River frontage and includes ponds, sloughs, hardwood timber, and thick cover that create strong wildlife habitat. An internal trail system provides access through most of the property, with food plots already in place, including one along a powerline. The setup works well for both rifle and bow hunting. The property also offers the potential for duck hunting. With existing open wet areas and sloughs, there is plenty of opportunity to plant and develop waterfowl habitat, as Humphreys County is known for holding solid duck numbers. When deer and duck season wind down, the property continues to offer year-round use with turkey hunting, fishing in the ponds, and access to the Yazoo River. As a bonus, you receive four alligator tags for the private land alligator season!

Tortuga is a well-rounded property with plenty to offer in the heart of the Mississippi Delta. Places that provide this kind of year-round use are not easy to come by. Showings are by appointment only to qualified buyers.
